

THE BENDIGO TRUST

Position Description

POSITION TITLE:	Tram Driver
LOCATION:	Bendigo Tramways
EMPLOYMENT STATUS:	Volunteer
REPORTS TO:	Traffic Superintendent
REVIEWED:	February, 2009

OUR ORGANISATION

The Bendigo Trust is a not for profit organisation responsible for managing, maintaining and promoting three of Bendigo's leading visitor attractions: Central Deborah Gold Mine, Bendigo Tramways and the Discovery, Science & Technology Centre, as well as the Bendigo Joss House.

The Trust's commercial objectives are directly related to increasing the level of year round visitation to all attractions. To achieve this it will undertake activities that will entice local, national and international visitors to discover Bendigo and our attractions, to stay as long as possible and encourage their return.

OUR MISSION

We make Bendigo's History come to life.

OUR VISION

We preserve, activate and promote Bendigo's working history through centres in and around Bendigo which display representative collections relevant to the region's history and environment. We encourage an interest in Australian history, and Bendigo's history in particular.

The role of the Tram Driver contributes to The Bendigo Trust reaching the vision by:

- a) Providing a welcoming presence to all tram passengers and passing on a love of Bendigo and its heritage assets
- b) Interpreting the Tramways Museum to visitors in a friendly and informative manner
- c) Ensure the smooth running of tram tours by operating the trams in a safe manner and keeping to the scheduled times

OUR PRINCIPLES

The principles which guide board members, staff and volunteers of The Bendigo Trust are:

- Respect* We act with respect for each other, our visitors, and the sites and collections entrusted to us
- Integrity* We act with integrity in all our dealings
- Excellence* We seek excellence in performing our roles, we are professional in all our dealings, and always seek to identify and implement better processes and solutions to problems
- Cooperation* We keep each other well informed and cooperate both in-house and with our stakeholders to achieve the aims of the Trust
